

A DIALECTICAL APPROACH TOWARDS PROLONGED PEACE.

With great fervor and dedication, Faculty Higher Secondary school, North Guwahati manifested their pursuits for cementing the second edition of FHSSMUN'18 . The institution proudly hosted over 200 delegates from more than 15 schools around Assam, along with several veterans of the Model United Nations circuit in the North East chairing the committees.

Envisaging the current challenges to the global community, the conference embarked on a three day mission of deliberation and diplomacy upon the theme 'Peace through Strength: Rise of Neo-conservatism in the world'. Through this idea of assertive promotion of democracy and interest in international affairs, the agendas formulated for the conference were rooted to provide the delegates with accumulative knowledge in areas ranging from the Rohingya Refugee crisis ,discrimination in the workplace, rise of fundamentalism in Indian Politics to aftermath of nuclear tests and global terrorism while taking a backward journey to the 9/11 attacks.

The opening ceremony witnessed the presence of some notable grandees respected and revered in the political realms of the society. Mr. Sanjeev Sanyal, the Prinicpal economic advisor to the Ministry of Finance, government of India as the chief guest and keynote speaker along with Dr. Nani Gopal Mahanta, HOD Political Science Department and Co-ordinator of Peace and Conflict studies at Gauhati University as the guest of honour graced the event with their enlightening and visionary words. Through their contrasting views of the theme, both the dignitaries highlighted the different dimensions and popular perceptions, inculcating the poignant issues that encircle Assamese lives.

All in all, it was a remarkable beginning to a conference anticipated to house introspective and dialectical reasoning to befit possible solutions for the recurring global adversities today.

- Kristi Mazumdar and Nayanika Shome

Faculty Higher Secondary School, North Guwahati